THIS ISNT YOUR DADDY'S WAR CAMP!

Are you infatuated with the same old scenarios every year?
Do you love talking for 30 minutes about a 15 minute fight?
Do you enjoy sitting around in the hot sun?
If so, then this may not be the War Camp for you...
If, however, you like some different scenarios that are tied together with a story worthy of an episode of Game of Thrones. If you like to use your brains to figure out how to achieve victory conditions. If you'd like to skip the talk and get to the fighting. If you'd like to be rewarded for winning the scenario...Then this may be the War Camp for you.

Come join us for the reinvention of the War Camp. Come discover;

"THE SECRET OF GREGOR'S GOLD"

Too corny? Too bad, it's all I could come up with.
The day kicks off at noon with a speed tourney to choose the captains then right to the fighting.

2 rules to be aware of;

- 1) combat archery will be allowed in all battles, but in an effort to hone our archers skills and provide a little balance, only face shots will count for combat archery
- 2) there will be no spears allowed in the woods portion of the scenario. Plan accordingly.

Looking forward to seeing you there,
Duke Gregor
Dean of the East Kingdom War College
