A&S Champion's Challenge

As the current A&S Champion I am submitting the 2015 A&S Championship Challenge early this year in order to give you plenty of time to prepare, practice, and meet this challenge should you decide to.

Rather than give the typical challenge to incorporate some element into your A&S design. I have something completely different in mind.

I am challenging you to take up a new vocation! Try something completely new! If you've never worked with leather, for example, try your hand at making a leather pouch or belt. If you've never done pottery, give it a try. If there is a media that you have been meaning to try but haven't done so yet. It's time to do it!

Yes, some arts and sciences may require costly tools and equipment that you don't own. But, that's one of the best things about the SCA. There is always someone who already has the tools and equipment and can lend and possibly teach you the basics of a new media. See MOAS Lily if you need to find help with finding guidance/equipment.

tim the humble

Something you could do for that A&S Champion's Challenge

You can also contact, Lord Conor, MKA: Jimi Lee at: jimi_lee@msn.com or call his cell phone between 5 pm and 8pm (646-879-8636) Once you register with Lord Conor, also call Mithgiladan to let him know you are coming. Sonnet CXXX

W. Shakespeare

My mistress' eyes are nothing like the sun;
Coral is far more red than her lips' red;
If snow be white, why then her breasts are dun;
If hairs be wires, black wires grow on her head.

I have seen roses damask'd, red and white,
But no such roses see I in her cheeks;
And in some perfumes is there more delight
Than in the breath that from my mistress reeks.

I love to hear her speak, yet well I know
That music hath a far more pleasing sound;
I grant I never saw a goddess go;
My mistress, when she walks, treads on the ground:

And yet, by heaven, I think my love as rare
As any she belied with false compare.
