Demo in the Keep

Hail All Ye Good Gentles!

As you may have heard by now, the 2005 summer reading theme of the American public libraries is "Dragons, Dreams and Daring Deeds". To that end, The Canton of the Keep By the Endless Sea will be holding a demo for the children of the Tinton Falls Public Library at 430 PM on Wednesday, June 29. We will be showing a myriad of "medieval" activities, amongst these a sweetmeat sampling by Lady Zoe Anastasia, several period dolls by Lady Lilly of the Valley, a needlework exhibit by Lady Katriona, a demonstration of sword and board fighting, (hopefully) demonstrations of fencing and thrown weapons, and I would love to hear from some more of our talented Scadians who wish to share their knowledge with the children.

All are welcome to come; please wear garb, and be prepared for questions!

The library is located at 664 Tinton Avenue, Tinton Falls NJ 07724. Take your best route to Parkway Exit 105. At the light (Hope Road and Rt. 36) take the jughandle to make a Left (north) onto Hope Road. Make a Left at the 3rd light (Tinton Ave). At the light bear Right. Library is small house on the left, surrounded by the buildings and parking lots of the Tinton Falls Middle School.

Yours in Service,
Carolina Francisca d'Emery
Keep Seneschale

Hello to our great populace of Carillion, Keep by the Endless Sea, Forestgate, and our great East Kingdom.

There will be a sew-fest on making a Chemesse taught by Lady Meghan O'Donnel on June 5th from 11 am to 4:30 pm. We never know how many Chemises we may need for Pennsic and other events in case they get wet or muddy. You can also work on your armor, weapons, and make archery repairs. If you want to practice Fencing, Fighting, or thrown weapons - and have a marshal with you - come on out. If any one wants to make or bring something yummy please do. I hope every one can come.

In service,
Lady Lilly of the Valley - MoA&S, The Barony of Carillion and my deputy MoA&S of The Keep by the Endless Sea, Katriona Mac Dhomhnuil

Unto the Populace of the Barony of Carillion does Lady Zoe, Baronial Chancellor of the Exchequer, send greetings!

As was announced at the Baronial Commons meetings of April and May, I will be stepping down from the office of exchequer, effective September 1. Since there will be no August Commons meeting due to Pennsic, the vote for the new exchequer will be held at the July meeting. At present, we have received one letter of intent. If you are interested in the position, or have any questions regarding what it entails, please feel free to make use of the contact information inside the front cover or e-mail exchequer@carillion.eastkingdom.org as soon as possible.

In Service,
Zoe

The Barony of Carillion is registered for Pennsic. Please pre-reg if you plan to camp with us. If you do not pre-reg, there will not be space for you to camp with us. Your single pre-reg will allot you 200 square feet. The remaining 50 square feet goes for the firepit, shower, etc. Please make sure that your tent and lines will fit into the space for which you pre-reg. The pre-registration deadline is May 31. Thank you.

This message brought to you by your friendly encampment land agent.

Greetings unto the populace from Lady Shannon Gallowglass, East Kingdom Chronicler.
