Ghosts, Ghouls and Goblins IIII

Oct. 11-13, Barony of Carillion
(Manalapan, NJ)

The Barony of Carillion will once again host a frighteningly fun 3-G archery shoot straight from the wickedly creative mind of Baron (by then) Ramos DaVida as well as a special night shoot on Friday. In addition to Archery, there is plenty of room for Fighting and Fencing. On Saturday October 12, Day-board will be provided. And for those staying for the weekend, on Saturday night, there will be a pig roast.

Thrown Weapons: There will be a thrown weapons tournament on Saturday. In fact, Carillion's Baronial Thrown Weapons Champion will be chosen through this tournament!

Site Info: The site is Quail Hill Scout Reservation. 56 LaValley Drive in Manalapan, NJ. Site opens at 6:00pm Friday October 11 and will close at Noon Sunday October 13. This year we have a cabin with wood burning stove for heat and, next to the cabin, the boy scouts have installed real flush toilets! This site is bone dry and no liquid fuels are allowed on site. No flames are allowed in tents. Community fire rings are available.

Site Fee: is $15.00 for the weekend (includes camping for the weekend, day-board and the pig roast Saturday), $7.00 for off-board (includes day board Saturday), Haflings (12 and under) are half price and babes in arms (3 and under) are free. Cabin space is an additional $5.00, please note that cabin space is only available to those who are weekend campers. There is VERY limited space for the cabin, pre-registration is highly recommended. Make checks payable to "SCA Inc. Barony of Carillion" and send them to the autocrat.

Merchants: Merchants are more than welcome, please bring your own table. There is no fee to sell, but all merchants must pay the appropriate site fees. Also, please contact the autocrat first so we know how much space to reserve for you.

Autocrat: The autocrat is Lord Rupert the Unbalanced, If more information is needed Rupert can be reached at RtU@beer.com. Any questions regarding archery should be directed to Ramos.

Directions:

Find your best route to NJ Route 33. (Exit 8 on the NJ Turnpike, Hightstown)

From the Hightstown area, proceed East on NJ Route 33 for six miles. Take the jug-handle from the right lane to go North on Route 527A (Iron Ore Road). Proceed 1/4 mile to LaValley Drive. Turn right on LaValley Drive and proceed 1/2 mile to troll.

From the Freehold area, proceed West on NJ Route 33 for six miles and go right on Route 527A North after the Mobil station (sign posted on traffic light at intersection says 527 / Iron Ore Road). Proceed 1/4 mile to LaValley Drive. Turn right on LaValley Drive and proceed 1/2 mile to troll.

Yellow SCA signs will be posted.

Lakewood FFI Ren Faire Demo

Sept. 21-22, Carrillion (Lakewood, NJ)

Good Gentles all! The 21th Annual Lakewood Renaissance Faire Demo hosted by the Lakewood Lions Club will be held at Pine Park in Lakewood, NJ.

Entertainers of all types (singers, dancers, musicians, and storytellers) are encouraged to attend. The Royal Procession will parade through the fairgrounds, so bring your finery. A Living Chess Game will be played both days and a Hurley game is scheduled for Saturday afternoon so bring your sticks. Anyone with banners showing their heraldry are invited to display them on the field. Period-type shade pavillions may be set up on the lower field to provide cover for our participants.

There will be heavy weapons, fencing, archery and thrown weapons demos scheduled throughout the day Saturday and Sunday. In addition, on Saturday the Baronial Champions' Tournaments will be held in the fields of Archery and Heavy Weapons Combat. Baronial Court will be held after the field closes on Sunday.

ReservationsAt this demo, there is no site fee to attend and all ore more than welcome. Camping is available, you must pre-register to camp.

MerchantsSpace is limited this year so anyone interested in reserving merchant space MUST contact the Merchant Autocrat by Aug . 24. The Merchant fee is $40. Make checks payable to "SCA Inc. Barony of Carillion" and send to the merchant autocrat.

Directions

From the North Best route to the Garden State Parkway southbound. Take Exit 91 and stay to the right on the exit ramp, towards Brick/Lakewood. Continue straight through the first light, and at the second light, turn right onto Route 526 west (Lanes Mill Road). **Continue on this road to Route 9 (Exxon Station and Diner on corners), cross over and ***after approx. 1 mile you will see a golf course on your left, get into the left lane. Take the first left and follow the chain link fence to the first gate. Turn right into the gate and follow the road to the site.

From the South Best route to the Garden State Parkway northbound. Take Exit 90 and make a u-turn at the first light. Follow to the third traffic light, and make a left onto Route 526 (Lanes Mill Road). Continue from **above.

From East/West or NJ Turnpike Best route to Interstate I-195 to Route 9 South (Exit 26). Continue for approx. 4 miles into Lakewood and turn right onto Route 526 (West County Line Road) at the Exxon station (if you pass the cemetery on the left you have gone to far). Continue from ***above.

From our Castellan

Greetings friends!

Lakewood Renfair is practically upon us, and I am hoping to prevail upon you -if you are not already committed - to take a shift at Castellan's point. It's not difficult work - sit, look medieval, and talk to the general public. I should have plenty of materials for handing out - basically what we had for West Windsor - and you need not bring anything special but yourselves. Either day is fine, and I won't keep longer than you wish.

Please advise if you can make it - and I will be soliciting the populace of Carillion as a whole - so hopefully we will not lack for volunteers.

In service,
Duncan

From the Keep

The Keep by the Endless Sea invites one & all to the following

Sunday, November 3 from 1 - 230pm at the Shrewsbury branch of the Monmouth County Library, a Middle Eastern Dance workshop taught by Baroness Aminah al-Zaahra.

Monday, Nov 4 from 6-9pm at the Eatontown Community Center a class on armor for heavy weapons

From Forestgate

Greetings,

I must apologize for giving incorrect dates for the resumption of our A&S night... I forgot that the weekend of September 1st is Hunter's Moon (anyone else care to caravan Friday night?) and that unless we hold A&S in NY, it's just not happening on Sunday! After this delay date, there really won't be any more - I'm looking forward to getting A&S running again with all the great ideas that people have tossed at me!

A&S will resume again on Sunday, September 8th at 700pm. Unless otherwise noted, it will be held weekly at 7 on Sunday nights at our house. If directions are needed, call Chad or myself or just drop me an email.

Sunday the 8th will be a day of planning (& catching up on post-war projects). Some great ideas have been passed my way in the past two or three weeks; requests for projects, and ideas in general have been mentioned one on one. It would be great if we could all get together to schedule things a bit, and for everyone who has brought up their pet projects/ideas to me in private to air them with the group.

Some ideas included metalworking (ie making molds & casting designs), woodworking, making Viking chairs, making a bread oven (ok, I'll own up to this one!), pottery, beading, cooking, and so forth. Bring your ideas, calenders, and a sense of humor to our A&S and we will have a great time plotting what we're going to get ourselves into next!

YIS,
Michelle

From his Highness, Prince Andreas

Good Gentles of the East,

Our good King Darius will be stepping down from the Eastern Throne and soon there will be a new King. This means that a new Prince will be needed as well.

This is a friendly reminder to send in your letters of intent if you wish to fight in Our Crown Tourney. We will not take any letters later than 28 September at Our Coronation in Bhakail. Please keep this in mind and send your LOI's in to Her Highness, with a copy to our Kingdom Seneschal.

I look forward to seeing you all at Coronation and throughout the year.

In service to the Mighty Eastern Tiger,
Prinz Andreas Eisfalke

From our newest Baron & Baroness of Carilion

Unto the good gentles of the Barony of Carillion do Baron Ramos Da Vida and Baroness Aminah al-Zahra send warm greetings.

There are so many people to thank we hardly know where to begin. Everyone out at Pennsic did so much to help and support us and to build the foundation for a better place to play in. Carillion is our home and we feel deeply that this is the beginning of a great future. If you were not able to make it out to war, just ask anyone what it was like and you will hear stories of a Barony of friends having a wonderful time together. Now back at home we can keep that fire burning.

We received such generous gifts at the investiture as well as some legendary presentations! We also sat for hours with Baron Pog and received wonderful, insightful advice. Many of the Barons and Baronesses of the Known World took time out of their war to come and congratulate us as well as offer sound advice. All deeply appreciated.

We hope to see you all at Lakewood RenFaire. Be well and have fun.

In service to the populace,
Ramos and Aminah
Baron and Baroness of Carillion
